Fitzwater reported that the Agency had reached 38.5 percent of its Combined Federal Campaign goal and that about 50 percent of the employees were contributing. We are now in the fourth week of the campaign with three more to go. The Director said we should attempt to crank up Agency participation.	25X1
In response to a question from Mr. Carlucci last week (see minutes of 17 October 1980) about the number of retirements we can expect this go around, Fitzwater said his people had processed applications this weekend and that employees had so far officially opted for retirement, and based on this we can expect to see a good number of retirements. The Director was told the reason for the retirements was that when Congress returns on 12 November they will probably abolish the "look-back" provision, thus people will want to retire prior to the abolition in order to get the COL increase.	25X1 25X1 25X1
The Director expressed his concern about Career Trainee recruitment. Fitzwater said that lack of confidence in protection overseas was one of the problems in getting trainees to come aboard (see minutes of 24 October 1980). Hitz asked if there was available a comparison with FSOs coming on board at State. Fitzwater said no in terms of current data, but it appeared State was not having any difficulty recruiting FSOs.	25X1
Hetu mentioned an article in the latest Washingtonian about the Kennedy assassination; it is anti-CIA.	25X1
Clarke said he was meeting with Dick Anderson and Leon Fuerth of Aspin's staff to discuss ways to measure the quality of intelligence.	25X1
Clarke reported that a Soviet cruiser and destroyer were about 700 miles from the Caribbean and could be expected to enter that area by Thursday. There is also an F-class submarine near the Virgin Islands which may join the other two ships.	25X1 25X1
